Eileen Lee Lavergne
Chief Marketing Officer, Centreon

Eileen Lee Lavergne is Chief Marketing Officer for Centreon, bringing nearly 20 years of senior international marketing and business communications experience in the B2B technology sector. In her current role, Eileen plays an integral role in creating strategies that support the company as it rapidly expands into new markets and customer segments.

Her career includes boundary-spanning management roles at Cisco, 6WIND, Alcatel, PTC and Burson-Marsteller. She has also served as a consultant to Telekom Malaysia, Accenture, AT&T and P&G.

Eileen holds an executive master's degree in consulting and coaching for change from HEC Paris and the University of Oxford Saïd Business School. She has a master's degree in diplomatic studies from the University of Westminster, a bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University in public relations and marketing, and certification in Management Leadership from the Malaysian Institute of Management. She is a contributing member of The Change Leaders (tCL) and is past president of the French chapter of the IABC (International Association of Business Communicators).

Besides jetting between Paris and Toronto for Centreon, Eileen loves learning and discovering. For her, time out means movies and books or exploring new places and culture, armed with a good dose of curiosity, a good appetite and a hardy camera.
